

Brian Doty's Talking Outdoors Radio Show

TV Personality Brian Doty delivers outdoor talk radio the way you want it. Get ready as Brian takes you beyond the “how to” of outdoor talk radio with today’s country music artists, star athletes and other outdoor TV personalities. Not everyone wants to listen to the ABC’s and 123’s of hunting. Brian keeps a broader audience swapping stories with country music artists such as Kevin Fowler, Casey Donahew, Mark McKinney, Sonny Burgess, Brandon Rhyder and No Justice. Listeners get to learn about each artist on a personal level, hear a song in each section of the show and learn a few hunting and fishing tips along the way. The show airs every Saturday for one hour.
